i) copy of an identification document, duly signed.

People who have disabilities should specify on the application form, according to current regulations, any aid they require and/or any request for additional time to complete the selection examination.

The University Administration will accept no liability for communication problems due to candidates providing inaccurate details of their residence or contact address, or to any delay in their notifying the Administration of any changes to said details, or to failings of the postal or telegraphic services beyond the Administration's control.

Art. 4 – State employees

State employees who have presented their application and who have passed the exam (with a minimum score of 60/100) are admitted as supernumerary and will have to pay the annual contributions and fees established for the course. More information can be found in art. 2 of Italian law n. 476 of 13th August 1984 and modified with art. 52, comma 57, of Italian law n. 448 of 28th December 2001.

Art. 5

Documents written in a foreign language

All documents written in English must be translated and legalised by the appropriate qualified Italian diplomatic or consular representatives abroad and must comply with the rules in force in that State.

Art. 6

Selection

The Research Doctorate entrance examination consists of a written exam and an oral exam.

The aim of the entrance examination is to assess the candidates' aptitude for scientific research.

Written notice of the date, time and place of the written exam and possible modifications will soon be communicated on the webpage of the course (<http://www.lum.it/ateneo/post-lauream/dottorati>).

All the entrance examinations will be held in English.

The written exam will be on a topic chosen by the candidate from among the subjects of the main Research Fields in art. 1.

The oral exam will involve both the discussion of the written exam and the research project presented by the candidate.

In order to be admitted to the entrance examination, candidates are expected to provide a valid identification document.

Candidates who are absent on the day of the entrance examination, for whatever reason, will be deemed to have withdrawn their application.

Art. 7

Examining Board

The Examining Board appointed by the Rector, on the advice of the Academic Board, will be composed of 5 members, at least 3 of which are to be appointed from among the full professors, associate professors and researchers of the Università LUM Jean Monnet. The Chairman will be chosen from among them.

Art. 8

Evaluation

The Examining Board can award each candidate a maximum of 60 points for each of the two exams.

Candidates who pass the written exam with a minimum of 40 points are admitted to the oral exam. The pass mark at the oral exam is 40. After the correction of the written exams and at the end of the oral exams, the Examining Board draws up a list of candidates examined, specifying the marks obtained by the candidates for each exam. The list, signed by the Chairman and by the Secretary of the Examining Board, will be posted, the same day, on the notice board of the University Rector's Office.

Having held the entrance examinations, the Examining Board will draw up the general merit-based ranking according to the sum of the marks obtained by each candidate in the written and oral exams (starting from the highest).

The candidates pass entrance examinations with a minimum score of 60/100.

The general merit-based ranking will be approved by Rector's Decree and published on the notice board of the Università LUM Jean Monnet – S.S. 100 Km. 18, CAP 70010 Casamassima – (Bari)- Italia and on the website of the above mentioned University.

Art. 9

Admission

Candidates will be admitted to the Doctorate Course according to the ranking list and up to the number of available places established for the Doctorate. In cases of equal merit, precedence will be given to the youngest candidate. Successful candidates will be excluded if their acceptance is not received within 15 days of the publication of the results on the website (<http://www.lum.it/ateneo/post-lauream/dottorati>).

Candidates who decide not to enrol must send a letter (accompanied by a copy of a valid identity document) by fax, for the attention of Dott.ssa Giulia Gazzilli, to the following number: (0039) 080 6977122.

If a successful candidate forfeits his/her right to a position before the beginning of the course, the next candidate in the rankings will be offered the place, according to the ranking list order.

Art. 10

Awarding

Candidates who have been admitted must present their personal data and their application form for enrolment, in person or by mail, to the Administrative Office of this University, on plain, unstamped paper, for the attention of Dott.ssa Giulia Gazzilli, within 15 days of the publication of the results on the website (<http://www.lum.it/ateneo/post-lauream/dottorati>).

They should also include the following declarations:

- a) self-declaration of citizenship;
- b) self- declaration of the University degree with official transcripts of records;
- c) declaration in which the candidate states that he/she has not enrolled on any University course and has no intention of doing so for the legal duration of the Doctorate course;
- d) declaration in which the candidate states that he/she has not enrolled on any Specializing Courses, and in cases where he/she has already done so the candidate agrees to suspend or interrupt the course before the Doctorate course begins;
- e) declaration in which the candidate states that he/she has not benefited from previous Doctorate scholarships;
- f) declaration in which the candidate states whether or not he/she is a State employee;
- g) self-declaration of receiving or not Research allowance;
- h) Self- declaration (only for the scholarship winners) of the income regarding the year 2010.

Candidates must enclose a photocopy of a valid identity document, duly signed, and two passport-size photographs with their application form.

No communications/letters will be sent to the Contact address for the purposes of the selection process indicated on the application form.

Art. 11 Enrolment fee

When they enrol, Scholarship winners are expected to pay a contribution towards the annual insurance for third-party liability against damage, as well as stamp duty for the application.

The same contributions must be paid by doctorate students enrolling for the following years.

Doctorate students are expected to pay a contribution of € 1.200 per annum. This does not apply to the winners of one of the scholarship mentioned in this announcement. The contribution must be paid, by Bank transfer, to the following current account:

Banca Apulia sede centrale via Amendola Bari (Iban Code IT47C0578704000001570001671) current account n. 1671 held by Università LUM Jean Monnet specifying "Tasse di iscrizione I anno Dottorato internazionale di ricerca in "The Economics and Management of Natural Resources".

Art. 12 Scholarships

Candidates admitted to the Doctorate Course according to the ranking list will benefit from the scholarships up to the number of scholarships available. In cases of equal merit, precedence will be given to the youngest candidate. The annual amount of the scholarship is € 13.638,47 including National Insurance contributions.

The scholarship won't be paid out in case the scholarship winner, in the year before the starting up of the Doctorate, has a taxable income of more than € 25.000 (twenty-five thousand) euros.

The scholarship will be 50% higher than the annual scholarship for research periods abroad (as provided by Italian Law). Scholarships are paid every month, ex post.

Scholarships are confirmed for the following Academic Year if the Academic Board validates the results achieved by the PhD students and their income. Scholarships cannot be combined with other scholarships awarded for the same purpose. Those who benefited from a Doctorate scholarship, even for only one year, cannot benefit from a further scholarship.

Art. 13

PhD students duties.

Enrolled students must attend the Doctorate courses held at the partner universities, in accordance with the procedures established by the Academic Board and must carry out their research studies and activities regularly within the structures intended for that specific aim, in accordance with the procedures established by the Academic Board. The attendance of the Doctorate Programme can be suspended in the following cases, according to the Academic Board deliberation:

- maternity;
- military service or civil service;
- serious, documented illness;

The Academic Board may exclude Doctorate Students in the following cases:

- negative assessment by the Academic Board of the results achieved during the academic year;
- outside working activity carried out by the Phd student without the prior authorization of the Academic Board;
- prolonged and unjustified absence;

In the aforementioned cases, the scholarship will be suspended and the scholarship holder will be obliged to pay back all sums received during the year to which the disciplinary action relates.

Art. 14

Evaluation of research activities

At the end of each Academic year, the PhD students must present the Academic Board with a detailed report on the activities and research carried out. The Academic Board will gather and evaluate the reports presented and, on the basis of the student's diligence and proven research activity, will recommend, to the Rector, admission to the next year of the Doctorate Programme or exclusion from the course or.

Art. 15

Doctorate Degree

The Doctorate Degree, awarded by the Rector of Università LUM Jean Monnet, will be obtained following successful completion of the final examination. The examination can be repeated only once.

For the final examination, on the advice of the Academic Board, the Rector will appoint a special Examining Board, composed of three effective members and three supply members chosen from among the professors who have specific knowledge in one of the fields of research of the Doctorate, in accordance with art.6, paragraph 5 of the "University Regulations on Research Doctorates"

Art. 16

Person Responsible for the Procedure

The person responsible for the procedure is Dott.ssa Giulia Gazzilli (Tel: 0039-080.6978223 or 0039-080.6978111; Fax: 0039-0806977122; e-mail: gazzilli@lum.it)

Art. 17

Processing of Personal Data
